A low-angle photograph of the Angel of the Bridge statue in Rome. The statue, a white marble work by Giovanni Stanetti, depicts an angel with large, feathered wings, holding a long spear aloft in its right hand. The angel is dressed in flowing robes and stands on a stone pedestal. In the background, the massive, circular brick structure of Castel Sant'Angelo rises, showing its characteristic crenellated battlements and arched windows. To the right, a flagpole with the Italian flag is visible against a clear blue sky. The overall scene is bathed in the warm light of late afternoon or early morning.

In the middle ground, the Ponte Sisto bridge, a large stone arch bridge, spans the river. The banks are lined with trees and buildings, some of which are illuminated by streetlights. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and romantic.
